

ACCOMMODATIONS TAX & BEACH PRESERVATION FEE

If you own residential property in the Town of Hilton Head Island and you rent it short term, you need to know the following rules and regulations:

What are the Town's Accommodation Tax/Beach Preservation Fee requirements?

Town Code Sec 4-10-30 and 4-9-30 requires anyone renting residential sleeping accommodations to the same person for less than 90 days to collect and remit Accommodations and Beach Preservations Fees (ATX). Additionally, other state and county taxes must be collected.

If you own residential rental property you need to know the following:

- ✓ If you own more than one rental property, you will need a business license in addition to an ATX permit.
- ✓ If you hold ownership of more than one property as a one member LLC, you will need a business license.
- ✓ If you rent through a property management company and they remit the payments on your behalf, you must provide the name of the management company.
- ✓ If your property is used for long term rentals, a copy of the lease must be submitted.

You can obtain the Business License/ Property Rental Application from our website:
