The budget planning has begun and packets have been disbursed to Town Departments and Affiliated Agencies for them to submit their requests for fiscal year 2022. Mr. Troyer noted that all initial requests are due February 26th and once the initial budgets are received Finance will input them into its financial system to allow for the bigger picture to begin to be formed and adjustments to be made where necessary. Individual department meetings will begin within the next few weeks in order to ensure the Town has ample staffing needs, Capital Improvement Projects are accounted for and all departments have an opportunity to properly prepare for the next year in hopes of having a balanced budget by the end of March.

Mr. Troyer shared the budget calendar with the Committee to highlight important and key dates that Town Council would need to be aware of. He also stated that there will be individual meetings with members of Town Council to discuss the budget and answer any questions they may have. New this year will be the adoption of a one-year budget versus two-years like in previous years. This will allow the Town to prepare a fiscally resilient budget that new Town Manager, Marc Orlando and Town Council will be comfortable with. Finance plans to will work closely with Mr. Orlando to provide him, Town Council and the Town Citizens with a balanced budget that displays the needs of our community.
